REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While British document number 549,616 shows a people conveyor with interconnected steps driven by a step chain through turnaround and return portions in which the steps are guided by the interaction between step rollers and inner and outer guide rails, it has a device for restraining the step rollers against the inner surface of the chain that is mounted on the outer guide rail rather than on the step or to the connecting axle of the steps so as to move together with the step as required by the independent claim. Furthermore, while British document number 491,301 shows a people conveyor with interconnected steps driven by a step chain through turnaround and return portions which has a device mounted on the connecting axle of the steps so as to move together with the step that restrains a pair of step rollers against a guide rail, it has inner and outer guide rails that contact different sets of step rollers rather than inner and outer guide rails that support the same step roller that is restrained by the restraining device as required by the independent claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mark A. Deuble whose telephone number is (571) 272-6912. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday.
